

The Feedback Challenge

Choose 6-9 (or more) people with whom you communicate regularly in professional life.
Include a few respondents from personal life if you wish.

whom you'll ask in person, with worksheet to share and no pressure to participate:

"In your opinion, what do I do well as a communicator, and what do you wish I'd do differently?"

There is no way for the feedback giver to be right or wrong, you just need OPINION.

Whatever you hear, don't disagree or justify anything. Just kindly say, "Thanks. I'll think about that".

Document responses in exact words. What you learn is a gift to help you grow.

RESPONSES:

(Name) (What they think you do well) (Could do differently?)

Large grid area for recording responses.
